

This course is devoted to assist clients in becoming familiar with Dahua Video Door Phone (VDP) and Access Control products. It aims to improve the efficiency of equipment installation, function operation and configuration, and problem troubleshooting. At the same time, it helps clients learn how to accurately select products and engage in the system design of VDP and Access Control solutions according to requirements.

IBS-DHSP

Candidates

Engineers who work with VDP and Access Control, and support project implementation.

Requirements

Those people who have a basic understanding of VDP and Access Control.

Duration

4 days

Objectives

- Familiar with the features of Dahua VDP and Access Control products. Able to select those products according to requirements.
- Acquire basic abilities for installation of Dahua VDP and Access Control products.
- Able to complete solution design and product selection according to project requirements. Acquire basic abilities for system configuration and function operation, Function operation includes VTH alarm setting, IPC integration, DMSS setting, Smartpss setting, DSS Express setting, standalone setting and attendance device setting.

Training Tracks

Theory+ Practice →

After completing this course and scoring over 140 or above on the exam, you will receive a IBS-DHSP certificate.

Time Table

Course	Duration (Day)
Products of VDP and Access Control Introduction Training	0.5
VDP and Access Control Solution Design Training	0.5
VDP and Access Control Devices Installation Guide Training	0.5
VDP and Access Control System Configuration Training	2