

Traffic Management System Engineer

Training and Certification

This course is devoted to assist clients in becoming familiar with Dahua Traffic Management System solution and products such as the the ANPR enforcement camera, radar speed enforcement, traffic-flow camera and traffic signal products. It aims to improve the efficiency of equipment installation, operation, configuration, and troubleshooting. At the same time, it helps clients learn how to select products accurately and engage in the system design of traffic management system solutions according to requirement

TMS-DHSP

Candidates

Engineers who are responsible for installation and initial configuration.

Requirements

Those people who have a basic understanding of traffic management System Products and Solutions

Duration

2 days

Objectives

- be familiar with the core products features of Dahua Traffic Management System solutions.
- be familiar with the application of products interfaces and accessories..
- Acquire the abilities of initial system configuration and fast operation, especially for ANPR function operation.

Training Tracks

Theory+ Practice →

After completing this course and scoring over 140 or above on the exam, you will receive an TMS-DHSP certificate.

Time Table

Course	Duration (Day)
TMS System Product Introduction Training	0.25
TMS produces operation and Interface Introduction Training	0.5
TMS solution introduction Training	1.25